

35x27mm

This technical drawing shows a mechanical component with a circular base and a rectangular extension. The rectangular extension contains a shaded square with dimensions 35x27mm. The square is centered within the rectangle, which is itself centered on the circular base. The drawing uses solid lines for the main geometry and dashed lines for the square's boundaries.